

I totally support satellite radio and it would be a silly thing to get rid of it. Why would you cancel satellite radio and not broadband internet, or local radio? There's no need to stop this form of entertainment.